

ADVANCE QUESTIONS TO CHAD (SECOND BATCH)

SLOVENIA

- Slovenia would like to note that under the new Criminal Code the death penalty can no longer be imposed for ordinary offences and would like to ask the distinguished delegation of Chad when Chad intends to abolish entirely the death penalty.
- Regarding the low ratio of birth registration in Chad Slovenia would like to ask the distinguished delegation of Chad on the measures taken to improve the birth registration system in order to prevent exploitation and abuse of children and ensure adequate access of all registered persons to basic services.

UNITED KINGDOM OF GREAT BRITAIN AND NORTHERN IRELAND

- What steps have the Government of Chad taken to ensure that people in the Lake Chad Basin have access to food in order to prevent malnutrition?
- What measures have the Government of Chad taken to ensure the security and welfare of internally displaced people and refugees within Chad?
- What steps have the Government of Chad taken to ensure human rights are respected and protected throughout the arrest, detention and prosecution of individuals?
- What measures have been taken by the Government of Chad to protect the rights of individual activists, human rights defenders and journalists, especially in connection with their rights to freedom of opinion and expression and freedom of peaceful assembly and association?
- When does the Government of Chad intend to implement its legal obligation to pay reparations to victims of abuses carried out during Hissène Habré's rule as per the 2015 judgment of the Special Criminal Court of N'Djamena?

GERMANY

- The revised penal code from 2017 still criminalizes homosexuality. What measures are taken to improve the situation of LGBTI persons in Chad?
- The conditions in prisons are not in conformity with human rights and international standards. What steps are taken to improve the detention conditions and to guarantee that human rights of detainees are respected?
- In how far were recent death sentences from August 2018 in line with the penal code, which abolishes the death sentence for all crimes except terrorist acts?
- With regard to the effective implementation of the revised penal code, which measures did the government already take to address the issue of impunity and what are the next steps?