

Human rights protection in China

- Beijing NGOs Facilitate Human Rights Construction in China

- 1. "China Human Rights Review Report" is in line with the actual situation of human rights in China.
- 2. We have witnessed the development of Chinese social organizations which are becoming an important subject of social governance of "small government and big society".
- 3. Our member organizations have made positive contribution to human rights development through international exchanges.
- 4. We will continue to carry out programs beneficiary to human rights and people's wellbeing, with the support of central and municipal government.
