Coletivo Atinuke - About the thinking of black women

Main Activities: Rio Grande do Sul (Brazil) and Uruguay (Uy)

Visit the Coletivo Atinuke website

Theme and/or affected group

Racism, women and food insecurity

Main question

Ending poverty in all its forms, everywhere. Because without access to food, food security, our black women are more vulnerable to countless other forms of human rights violations. Ensuring this objective by 2030 is a guarantee of economic, social and political resources with dignity for the majority of the Brazilian population.

3rd cycle recommendations

136.46, 136.47, 136.50, 136.133, 136.135, 136.142

Suggested recommendations - 4th cycle

1. Strengthen public policies related to combating discrimination and prejudice against indigenous and Afro-Brazilian people from an intersectional perspective;
2. Restructuring and strengthening of the “Bolsa Família Program” in the context of the fight against food insecurity and poverty in Brazil.
