

Universal Periodic Review

Right to Food: Progress made in selected FAO member countries

Ecuador

Ecuador is starting a process for a new constitution and has requested the support of FAO for the preparation of a document on the right to adequate food to be presented to the constitution assemblyⁱ. The government of Ecuador also prepared a national plan for social development, which includes elements related to rural development and the right to food. A national training session and awareness workshop on the right to food were conducted.

February 2008

This information has been compiled by the FAO Right to Food Unit based on public information available. The designations employed do not imply the expression of any opinion whatsoever on the part of the Food and Agriculture Organisation of the United Nations concerning the legal or development status of any country, territory, city or area or of its authorities, or concerning the delimitation of its frontiers or boundaries.

ⁱ See also FAO 2007. Right to Food in Action. Examples of how FAO Member Countries Make it Happen. Available at www.fao.org/righttofood.