

ADVANCE QUESTIONS TO LIECHTENSTEIN

MEXICO

- What obstacles has the Government identified regarding the integration of foreigners who belong to “the group of third countries”, in particular in the areas of access to quality education, health services and housing, labor rights, processes of naturalization and family reunification?
- What measures have been taken to sanction direct or indirect discrimination against persons of different ethnic origin, language or religion?

NETHERLANDS

- Women’s rights
Despite continuous efforts to eliminate direct and indirect gender discrimination – the Department for Equal Opportunities for Women and Men is active in this area – women more often have a job with fewer responsibilities in comparison with men. What is the government planning to do to alter this trend?
- Impartial judicial system
The Group of States against Corruption of the Council of Europe has stated in its 2011 evaluation report on Liechtenstein that work has to be done in the field of impartial judiciary. How does Liechtenstein ensure the impartiality of the judicial powers and the appointment of (ad hoc) judges?
