The CAT Network Japan

About our Coalition

The CAT Network Japan is a coalition of NGOs working domestically to protect and promote human rights of persons deprived of their liberty in prisons, immigration detention centers, and psychiatric hospitals. A brief introduction of each NGO follows.

The Center for Prisoners' Rights Japan (CPR):

The Center for Prisoners' Rights is a non-profit, non-governmental organization established in 1995, with the objective of improving prison conditions and prisoners' treatment in Japan to comply with international human rights standards. Our members include lawyers, academics, and human rights activists. The CPR is working with international NGOs such as Amnesty International, Human Rights Watch, Penal Reform International and others, and together we have held many international human rights seminars and conferences in Japan.

The Immigration Review Task Force (IRTF) :

The Immigration Review Task Force is a non-governmental, non-religious and non-profit organization founded by citizens, lawyers, and academics in 1994. We have collected testimony of those who were deported from Japan and other witnesses, by interviewing them not only in Japan but also in other countries such as Peru, the Philippines, China, and Iran.

The Tokyo Center for Mental Health and Human Rights:

The Tokyo Center for Mental Health and Human Rights is a legal advocacy organization for mental health service users in Tokyo. It was established in March 1986 by a coalition of lawyers, mental health professionals, community workers, patients and families. The Center offers various services, including a Hot Line Service, visits to psychiatric hospitals in order to resolve problems of inpatients, and publication of human rights literature.
