

ADVANCE QUESTIONS TO THAILAND – ADD.3

SWEDEN

- Sweden would like to ask the Royal Thai Government to elaborate on measures to safeguard freedom of expression, specifically related to for instance the Libel Law regarding the crime of defamation and the Computer Crime Act.
- Sweden recognizes existing legislation on child protection but would at the same time like to ask the Royal Thai Government what additional measures it can envisage to take, in order to try to eradicate the phenomena of child pornography and human trafficking of girls and boys for sexual purposes.
- Sweden would like to ask the Royal Thai Government to share its plans and activities in order to combat impunity.