- 90.99. Accepted;
- 90.100. Partially accepted; The legal analyses have shown, that complete decriminalization of defamation and the removal of the art. 212 from the Polish Penal Code would be unjustified, as the responsibility of the state to respect the privacy of the citizens comprises also taking active measures to protect their privacy from the actions of third party. In cases of particularly drastic slander made in bad faith, penal sanctions are necessary to protect the dignity of the aggrieved person; However, amendments to article 212 were introduced already in 2010, with a view to liberalization of the sanctions and extending the number of circumstances excluding the legal responsibility under art. 212;

- 90.113. Accepted, in the course of implementation;
- 90.114. Accepted;
- 90.115. Accepted, in the course of implementation;
- 90.116. Partially accepted; Polish educational system guarantees full access to public education to Roma children; if necessary, additional, cost-free classes are organized in Polish language and other subjects for all children who need further help; moreover, schools can employ the so called “mediators for Roma education”, who facilitate the communication between the school and the parents of the Roma children, as well as employ teachers trained to work with multicultural children; the multiannual governmental programme for Roma community in Poland guarantees also help to Roma children offering free handbooks, grants and pre-school education. Although it is legally and technically possible to introduce bilingual education for Roma children, the Roma living in Poland do not want to enjoy this right, as their cultural system forbids them to teach the Roma language outside their communities;
- 90.117. Accepted, in the course of implementation;
- 90.118. Partially accepted; an amendment to the Law on Foreigners is being prepared in order to introduce a ban on detaining children under 13 in closed facilities; however, it is going to be applied only to children seeking to receive the status of refugees; a complete ban on placing minors and their guardians in closed facilities could lead to negative trend of using children by adults for migratory purposes as a safeguard against being placed in closed facilities;
- 90.119. Accepted, in the course of implementation;
- 90.120. Accepted, already implemented;
- 90.121. Partially accepted (see recommendation 118);
