Corrigendum

1. Section II. Cooperation with human rights mechanisms

For the existing text substitute

3. In 2010, the Human Rights Council held an urgent debate on the raid on the flotilla by Israeli Defense Forces.¹ The High Commissioner for Human Rights observed that the main conclusions of the fact-finding mission had yet to be met with effective action by the Israeli authorities, and that Israel had not cooperated with the mission.² The High Commissioner noted that there had neither been prosecutions nor an effective remedy for the crimes and violations noted by the fact-finding mission with regard to the incident of the humanitarian flotilla.³

After paragraph 3, insert a new paragraph reading

3 bis. In 2013, the Human Rights Council adopted a resolution on the follow-up to the report of the United Nations Independent International Fact-Finding Mission on the Gaza Conflict, which renewed its recommendation that the General Assembly remain apprised of the matter until it is satisfied that appropriate action with regard to implementing the recommendations contained in the report of the fact-finding mission is taken at the domestic or international level.⁴
