3- Introducing organization

Iran Friendship Association and the Polish NGOs are officially licensed by the Islamic Republic of Iran has tried to introduce the culture of ancient Iran and other countries With Introducing Iranian and experts in this field around the world are trying to establish and develop international cooperation.

In this way the association to achieve its lofty goal is to hold several conferences and exhibitions. For example, it can be a photo exhibition in Warsaw, the Polish immigrants who arrived in Iran coincided with the Second World War and a memorial to the memory of Iranian hospitality was noted You recommend the basis of this report the following recommendations, based on tracking the UPR in the first round in 2010 provided has been prepared Efforts continue the dialogue of civilizations national and international attention to the countries of Sri Lanka - Syria - China and Algeria, as well as rights - economic, social and cultural recommendations Sudan - Cuba - and Tajik traditions and rich culture and ancient history our heritage of Iran and maintain the attention of national and international dimensions indicated .

4- Recommended in the past - present - future

Although similar measures had been made in this direction, but it was slow motion the new policy appears to follow this trend as more professional, and it was expected positive future for the movement.

Research methodology and data collection: Satisfying that it has provided the opportunity for NGOs. In recent years a number of organizations are more active, hence wider participation and strengthen the basis for long-term cooperation is further validated. In this regard the recommendations by consulting with organizations such as UNESCO, for example, offer up spiritual heritage that is offered is offered by the Association.

5- Suggestions & Solutions

Iran Friendship Association to move faster and more efficiently in order to be accepted in the first round of the UPR recommendations mentioned in the report suggests that:

A: Increase the number of non-governmental organizations to enhance the cultural environment.

B: the non-governmental experts to be used in the decision -making culture.

C: Experiences to empower the public sector, non-governmental organization's innovative culture should be used.

D: The Iranian government's relationship with their counterparts in other countries internationally active institutions (especially in countries with common cultural) to provide it.

E: Creation of a common market between the two countries to more familiarity with the cultural, social and cultural links between the two countries.

F: Create a database for both research and education in order to introduce and familiarize the people together and introducing celebrities, artists, athletes and celebrities to Introducing at international level.
