The Advocates for Human Rights,

a NGO holding ECOSOC Special Consultative status since 1996,

The Advocates for Human Rights (“The Advocates”) is a volunteer-based nongovernmental organization committed to the impartial promotion and protection of international human rights standards and the rule of law. Established in 1983, The Advocates conducts a range of programs to promote human rights in the United States and around the world, including monitoring and fact finding, direct legal representation, education and training, and publications. The Advocates is committed to ensuring protection for refugees around the world and provides legal services to asylum seekers in the Upper Midwest region of the United States.
