

Republic of Maldives

22nd Session of the Human Rights Council Universal Period Review
(Second Cycle)

15 September 2014

A submission by;

Advocating the Rights of Children (ARC)

Advocating the Rights of Children (ARC) is a non-governmental organization registered and established in the Maldives to promote and protect the rights of the child, to foster their wellbeing and to ensure that all decisions and policies undertaken in the Maldives towards safeguarding the rights of the child are in conformity with the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child and with other international human rights instruments, standards and best practices.

CONTACT INFORMATION

JAVED FAIZAL (MR.)

Director for Policy Planning and Research

Advocating the Rights of Children (ARC)

M. Nooreege, Male', Republic of Maldives

Tel: + (960) 333 8783

Fax: + (960) 333 8783

Email: jfaizal@arc.org.mv, info@arc.org.mv

Website: www.arc.org.mv