

ADVANCE QUESTIONS TO MOROCCO (FOURTH BATCH)

LIECHTENSTEIN

- Liechtenstein recognizes the efforts by Morocco to reform the penal code, which are part of the larger process of judicial reform, and aim to bring Moroccan law in line with the country's international commitments, as stipulated in the Constitution. Liechtenstein welcomes that such reforms include the criminalization of, inter alia, trafficking of migrants, genocide, crimes against humanity, and war crimes.

Liechtenstein welcomes the fact that Morocco has accepted recommendations pertaining to its ratification of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court.

What steps has Morocco taken since to ratify the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court in its 2010 version?
