PEN International: PEN International is a global writers' organization working to defend free expression and protect writers at risk with 144 centres in more than 100 countries in Europe, Asia, Africa, Australia and the Americas. PEN holds Special Consultative Status at the United Nations ECOSOC and Associate Status at UNESCO.

PEN Guatemala: PEN Guatemala defends freedom of opinion and expression and protects writers at risk in Guatemala.

PEN Canada: PEN Canada is a nonpartisan organization of writers that works with others to defend freedom of expression as a basic human right, at home and abroad. PEN Canada promotes literature, fights censorship, helps free persecuted writers from prison, and assists writers living in exile in Canada.

International Human Rights Program at the University of Toronto Faculty of Law (IHRP): The International Human Rights Program at the University of Toronto Faculty of Law enhances the legal protection of existing and emerging international human rights obligations through advocacy, knowledge-exchange, and capacity-building initiatives that provide experiential learning opportunities for students and legal expertise to civil society.
