

NGO report on the implementation of UPR recommendations by the Japanese government

30 March 2017

To be submitted for the Universal Periodic Review (Third Cycle) of Japan
At the 28th session of the UPR working group (6-17 November 2017)

Discrimination against minority children in Japan in the provision of educational opportunities ——focusing on children attending Korean schools in Japan

Submitted by:

Human Rights Association for Korean Residents in Japan (HURAK)¹

* Human Rights Association for Korean Residents in Japan (HURAK) is a non-profit, non-governmental human rights organization devoted to advocating rights of Korean residents in Japan and contributing to their well-being. HURAK was founded in 1994 by legal experts, researchers and activists in the field of human rights of Korean residents in Japan. HURAK is an affiliated body of the NGO Network for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination (ERD Net), which is a nationwide network among NGOs and individuals working for the issues relating to racism, racial discrimination and colonialism in Japan.

Website	http://k-jinken.net/
E-mail	jinken94@yahoo.co.jp
Address	3-41-10-3F, Taitou, Taitou-ku, Tokyo, Japan 110-0016

¹ This report was jointly submitted by International Movement Against All Forms of Discrimination and Racism (IMADR).

