

The Impact of Zambia's Government Policies on Freedom of Expression and Freedom of the Press

Submission to the United Nations Universal Periodic Review of Zambia

Third Cycle

Twenty Eighth Session of the UPR

Human Rights Council

October - November 2017

March 30, 2017

Submitted by:

PEN International: PEN International is a global writers' organization with 144 centres in more than 100 countries in Europe, Asia, Africa, Australia and the Americas.

PEN Zambia: Zambian PEN was established in 2004 and runs an extensive programme of literary events, including 'Story Time' events for the whole family. The Centre is also collaborating on a 'Power in the Voice' project which is running in different countries of Southern Africa, a mentoring programme that identifies young local talent and encourages writers to realise their full potential.

Contacts: Sarah Clarke (PEN International), Policy and Advocacy Manager, +44 20 7405 0338, sarah.clarke@pen-international.org