

Human rights of the forest communities in India endangered by the CAMPA Act

For Universal Periodic Review (UPR) on India

Information on follow-up to the preceding reviews on rights of forest communities in India

Joint Stakeholders' Report to the United Nations Universal Periodic Review (UPR)

Submitted by:

- New Wind Association

Uusi Tuuli ry c/o Lotta Leka, Siirintie 20, 20300 Turku, Finland

Email: newwindassociation2016@gmail.com, Mobile phone: +358-45-2380890

New Wind is a Finnish civil society organisation which works for global justice and for the rights of sustainable communities. New Wind was registered on 09.09.1985. It works currently particularly for the rights of indigenous communities and customary sustainable use of biodiversity. It is involved also in CBD Alliance.

- Emmaus Aurinkotehdas ry

c/o Ville-Veikko Hirvelä, Laakantie 25, 34870 Visuvesi, Finland

Email: villeveikkoh1@gmail.com, <http://adivasi-info.net/AJVAM.html>, Mobile phone: +358-40-7743460

Emmaus Aurinkotehdas is a Finnish civil society organisation, established in 2006 which works for global justice and particularly to support the forest rights and livelihoods of Adivasi forest communities in India against displacement and take-over of their ancestral forest lands for purposes of commercial and industrial profits.

- Global Human Rights Communications,

Khandual Vihar, Sarakantara, Bhubaneswar -751019, Odisha, India

Email: info@globalrights.ngo, Web: www.globalrights.ngo, Phone: +91 9668229246

Global Human Rights Communications (GHRC), based in India since 2010, builds respect for human rights and challenges injustice. It practices results-based advocacy through creative and strategic communications with National Human Rights Institutions, Governments, UN Human Rights Bodies and non-state stakeholders.