

ANNEX I

Organizations Profile

Joint Stakeholders' Submission on THE RIGHTS OF THE PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES (Responses to Recommendation Paragraph 108.34, 108.35, 108.36)

Submitted by Indonesian Disability Persons' Organizations

OHANA, HWDI Nasional, HWDI South Sulawesi, PPDI, Dria Manunggal Yogyakarta, CIQAL Yogyakarta, PERTUNI Jawa Tengah, PERTUNI Sleman, SAPDA Yogyakarta, WKCP Yogyakarta, GERKATIN Nasional, Himpunan Jiwa Sehat Jakarta, PLD UIN Yogyakarta, PPRBM Solo, PERMATANTT, BILiC Bandung, SEHATI Sukoharjo, PPUA Jakarta, Wahana Inklusi Indonesia (WHI), IDEA Yogyakarta, ICM, and Koalisi Perempuan Indonesia, INFID, and Human Rights Working Group (HRWG)

- 1. OHANA: OHANA is a disability person's organization (DPO) based in Yogyakarta Province, Indonesia. We have been working on specific issues such as policy advocacy, disability rights and policy studies as well as legal drafter for social policies. Our organization has been initiated on March 2009 and it has been officially registered as a Non Government Organization on July 6, 2012. OHANA founders are the International Fellowship Program Alumnae who have existed on social justice and community development for the marginalized population in Indonesia. Address: Jongkang no.67F, RT 08 RW 36, Sariharjo, Ngaglik, Sleman, Yogyakarta 55581, Indonesia. Contact person: Risnawati Utami, S.H, MS/IHPM, email: ohanaindonesia@gmail.com , risnautami@gmail.com, Telp: 62 274 4361380, Work Cell: 62 821 372 93816. <https://ohanaindonesia.wordpress.com/>
- 2. Himpunan Wanita Disabilitas Indonesia/HWDI (The Association of Indonesian Women with Disabilities) is disability person's organization with Vision to collect, advocate, and empower the women of disability and jointly fight for their rights as women with disabilities in Indonesia. Address: Menteng Square Office & Apartment 2nd floor, tower A Unit AR-01 Jl. Matraman Raya No. 30 E Menteng, Jakarta Pusat, Phone : +62 21 29614294, Fax :+62 21 29614294, Email : hwdi@hotmail.co.id. Chairperson: Maulani A Rotinsulu, website: <http://www.hwdi.or.id/>
- 3. Established in 2011, the General Election Network for Disability Access (AGENDA) was formed as a forum to improve access to political and electoral opportunities for persons with disabilities in Southeast Asia through increased public awareness and advocacy for change. AGENDA is a creative partnership between IFES, disabled persons organizations (DPOs), and election-focused civil society organizations (CSOs). AGENDA is currently funded by the Australian Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade and the United States Agency for International Development (USAID) during the first phase of the project. The AGENDA network's principal objectives have been to promote election access in Southeast Asia and ensure that access to disability-inclusive political processes is on the human rights agenda of regional bodies, especially the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN). Website: <http://www2.agendaasia.org/>

4. Unity Disability Indonesia (Persatuan Penyandang Disabilitas Indonesia, PPDI) is an umbrella organization composed of diverse organizations and social disability in Indonesia was established in 1987. Address Komplek DPR II Blok C No. 18, Meruya Selatan – Jakarta Barat 11650, Telp./fax. +62 22540300, email: dpp@ppdi.or.id.
5. Wahana Inklusif Indonesia (WII) is Disable Person Orgainzation (DPO) which focused its program and activities on promoting the rights of persons with disabilities to education through supporting the implementation of inclusive education. This organization has been established since 19 September 2013. WII is currently providing direct education supports to children with disabilities which enrolled in the regular schools, conducting Inclusive Education trainings and technical assistance for teachers at the regular schools in order to enhance their knowledge and skills on implementing the inclusive education and teaching students with disabilities, and advocating for the rights of children with disabilities to pursue their education. Wahana Inclusive Indonesia located in Jl. Jawa No. 159 Beji-Depok 16421 Website: www.wahanainklusif.org.com
6. CIQAL (Center for Improving Qualified Activity in Live of People with Disabilities) <http://ciqal.blogspot.co.id/>
7. PERTUNI (Persatuan Tunanetra Indonesia/Indonesian Blind Union, is a community organization founded by a group of blind people in 1966. Pertuni a national level organization that has the management structure of the central level in the capital of the Republic of Indonesia, the regional level in the province, and the branch level in the City / County. Pertuni members consist of Ordinary Members (the visually impaired), member of Partners BAKTI, (normal people who volunteer to help the activities Pertuni), and Honorary Members. Website: <http://pertuni.idp-europe.org/>
8. SABDA is disability persons' organization, based in Yogyakarta.
9. SIGAB is disability persons' organization based in Yogyakarta: <https://www.sigab.or.id/>
10. BILiC (Bandung Independent Living Center): BILiC is a non-government institution that has basic concept of Independent Living movement for people with disabilities. BILiC have the legal operational license from Notarise in Bandung, dated April 14th, 2005. Nowadays, BILiC were under the management of Yayasan Hidup Independen. Website: <http://bilic.idp-europe.org/>

11.INFID (International NGOs Forum on Indonesian Development), INFID (International NGO Forum on Indonesian Development) is a non-government organization that played a pivotal role in shaping Indonesia's democratization process (human rights, freedom of the press, rule of law, labour rights citizens, participation and gender quality). It has now entered its 26th year of establishment. Prominent civil society figures, such as Gus Dur is one of the founders of INFID. Website: <http://infid.org/>

12.Human Rights Working Group (HRWG) is Indonesian NGOs coalition for international human rights advocacy, based in Jakarta, consist of 43 CSOs/NGOs around Indonesia. Contact: hrwg@hrwg.org, hrwg.indonesia@gmail.com, website www.hrwg.org, Twitter @HRWG_Indonesia