KAWAGIB Alliance for the Advancement of Moro Human Rights

The Moro-Christian Peoples Alliance is a network of Muslim and Christian religious leaders, Moro people's organizations and civil libertarians advocating the collective rights and aspiration of the Moro People for self-determination. MCPA was founded in August 1999 and was duly registered a non-stock, non-profit organization in 2003. The main activities are Education and Advocacy, projecting the issues and concerns of the Moro People in the national and international level; public fora, workshops, photo exhibits and publications. MCPA also renders Human Rights Services, especially in documentation and in reporting and monitoring of Human Rights Violations, providing paralegal and basic Services to human rights victims.

KAWAGIB Alliance for the Advancement of Moro Human Rights was founded in February 27 2006 by different organizations from Southern Philippines which asserts the inalienable rights of Moro Peoples rights to life, liberty, security of person and fundamental freedoms of ideas, beliefs, expression and assembly, as well as from want and fear. Kawagib is working for the advancement of human rights of the Moro people and their struggle for social justice, right to self-determination and peace based on justice.
