Kilusang Magbubukid ng Pilipinas or Peasant Movement of the Philippines (KMP)

The KMP is a democratic and militant movement of landless peasants, small farmers, farm workers, rural youth and peasant women in the Philippines. The KMP was founded in July 1985 and carries out painstaking organizing and education work among the peasants to uphold and protect their right to land.

We have previously and currently conduct programs for immediate economic relief of peasants and the provision of direct support services such as livelihood and production, bio-diversity based ecological agriculture, disaster relief, among others. We also campaign for the release of peasant
