The Initiative for Social and Economic Rights (ISER) is a registered national non-governmental organisation in Uganda founded to ensure the full recognition, accountability and realisation of social and economic rights primarily in Uganda, but also within the East African region. It submits the following report on Uganda's implementation of key recommendations concerning the rights to health, education and vulnerable groups received during its first UPR in 2011 and highlights emerging issues since 2011 that threaten the realisation of these rights.
