

China Disabled Persons' Federation (CDPF)

We appreciate the positive and productive efforts the Chinese Government has made in protecting the rights of persons with disabilities in China.

We have witnessed a series of concrete actions the Chinese government has made in legislation, national programs and international cooperation to integrate persons with disabilities into society and to promote their rights.

We call upon international community to strengthen exchanges and cooperation within the framework of UN Convention on the Rights of persons with disabilities and sustainable development goals.